ENGAGED IN MULTILATERAL DIALOGUES

WATER IS THE KEY TO LIFE. NO OCEAN. NO LIFE.
NO BLUE. NO GREEN

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white cardigan and a patterned skirt, stands at a white podium with two microphones, gesturing with her hands while speaking. To her left is a black circular table with a laptop on it.

An audience of approximately 15 people is seated in rows of chairs on the right side of the stage, facing the speaker. The room has a high ceiling with arched windows and a blue ambient light.
